

Promotional Game for the IT Security at the University of Szeged training

Rules and Additional Information

The promotional game is organized to promote the IT Security at the University of Szeged training and its associated test. The organizer of the promotion is the IT and Services Directorate (ISZI) at the University of Szeged.

Participants who complete the test associated with the IT Security at the University of Szeged training will have a chance to win prizes offered by the IT and Services Directorate.

1. Duration of the Promotional Game

The 'IT Security at the University of Szeged' promotional game is valid from August 14, 2023, to September 22, 2023.

2. Prizes

Prizes in the Promotion:

- Weekly prize: 1 package of USZ promotional products
- Grand prize: 10 SZTE Welcome Camp festival passes

Within the duration of the game, one weekly prize will be drawn every week.

The 10 grand prizes will be drawn on September 21, 2023.

3. Rules for Participation in the Draw

Those who are eligible to participate in both the weekly prize draw and the grand prize draw are:

- Those who sign up for the IT Security at the University of Szeged training on the Modulo platform.
- Those who complete the test associated with the IT Security at the University of Szeged training's study materials by 23:59 on the Wednesday of the respective drawing week.
- Those who are members of the IT Security at the University of Szeged Coospace space.

4. Rules for the Draw

The weekly draw will take place every Thursday during the promotion period, based on data valid as of 23:59 on the Wednesday before the draw.

Each participant's name will appear only once on the drawing list. The draw will be carried out by randomizing the order of users and randomly selecting winners.

Every week, one winner and one backup winner will be drawn; for the grand prize, ten winners and three backup winners will be drawn.

Users who win a weekly prize cannot participate in other weekly draws, but they can still participate in the grand prize draw.

5. Rules for Collecting the Prizes

If the weekly winner declines the prize, the backup winner is entitled to collect the prize. If the backup winner also does not collect the prize, it will not be awarded for that week.

Prizes will be collected in person at the IT and Services Directorate. Exceptions may be made in case of specific requests.

Further details regarding prize collection will be communicated via email with the winners, as per the 'Communication' section in these rules.

6. Communication

Winners will receive notifications to their email addresses stored in Neptun from the ITOKtatas@szte.hu email address managed by the IT and Services Directorate.

Winners will also receive email notifications regarding prize collection details for both the weekly prize game and the grand prizes.

The simplified rules of the game is published on the website of the IT and Services Directorate (<https://u-szeged.hu/iszi>) and the IT Security at the University of Szeged scene at SZTE Coospace.
